Kanawha County Commission Christmas at Coonskin Event to Bring Holiday Cheer this Friday, December 1st

Charleston, WV – The Kanawha County Commission and Kanawha County Parks and Recreation are excited to bring in some holiday cheer with “Christmas at Coonskin” this Friday, December 1st.

It’s a free event open to the public, and we hope lots of families come out and celebrate with us. The event kicks off at 4:30 PM, with the Christmas tree lighting set for around 5:30 PM right outside the clubhouse.

Inside, there will be several school groups selling baked goods and raffle baskets. Kanawha County Parks will be selling pepperoni rolls. There will be free hot chocolate and candy canes.

Hoppy’s Little Express will be offering train rides through the Coonskin Christmas lights.

We want to remind folks about the Courthouse Kindness for Kids toy drive in honor of Judge Joanna Tabit. You may bring your donations to this event, only toy donations can be accepted.

Additionally, you may bring coats to donate to the United Way Coat Drive to help folks in need.

Finally, Santa Claus himself will be there, listening to children’s wish lists and spreading Christmas joy to everyone.

We hope to see you this Friday, December 1st for “Christmas at Coonskin.” It’s going to be great!
